

A Spontaneous Activity on Business and Management Govt. Degree College Karsog, Distt. Mandi-175011.

A Report

1 September, 2024

On 29th August, 2024, the commerce society of Govt. Degree College Karsog, Distt. Mandi-175011 organized a spontaneous activity based on the theme "Business and Management." The event was organized in room number 304 after 1 p.m.

The main objective of conducting this activity is to provide a platform for the students to hone their public speaking skills, engage in meaningful discourse, and exchange ideas on pressing issues facing society today. Additionally, this activity provides a platform for students to overcome any hesitation or fear they may have experienced during their student years. Therefore, they can build up their confidence.

Assistant Professor Satish Thakur, Department of Commerce, Govt. Degree College Karsog, was the convener of this activity. Students enthusiastically participated in this activity.

This activity consisted of four rounds, starting with an introduction round in which each participant gave a brief introduction. In the second round, the focus was on the concept of "hidden performance." Following this, a brainstorming session titled "Business Idea Generation" was held. The primary goal of this session was to instil entrepreneurial skills in the students. In the final round, we organized a quiz competition that tested both general awareness and academic knowledge.

Following these rounds, we announced the names of the winners, showcasing their exceptional ideas and thoughts from the brainstorming session and quiz competition.

During the closing session, students provided valuable feedback and comments on this activity. This activity was incredibly meaningful and interesting, allowing every student to uncover hidden knowledge while also enjoying a spontaneous activity.
